About Me

I am a B.S. LL.B. student at National Law University Meghalaya, driven by a genuine interest in research, analysis, and understanding how law connects with technology, policy making, corporate governance, company law, and insolvency frameworks. I enjoy exploring complex legal issues, presenting clear solutions, and working on tasks that require adaptability, teamwork, and precision. I thrive in environments that challenge me to apply my skills across diverse areas and contribute meaningfully to any project I undertake. Whether it is researching nuanced legal issues, drafting precise documents, coordinating events, or working on policy-oriented tasks, I am adaptable and committed to delivering quality outcomes. My ability to manage time, work effectively in diverse teams, and approach tasks with attention to detail allows me to contribute meaningfully to any assignment I undertake. I look forward to opportunities that challenge me to learn continuously and to apply my skills in ways that create a positive impact.
